CABINDA PROVINCE AGRICULTURAL VALUE CHAIN DEVELOPMENT PROJECT

WORDS FROM THE PROJECT COORDINATOR

JOSÉ FERNANDES
PROJECTO COORDINATOR

Dear Readers and Partners,

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to the official page of the Cabinda Province Agricultural Value Chains Development Project (CPAVCDP). As the Project Coordinator, I am excited to share the significant strides we have made in advancing our mission to strengthen food security, create employment, and promote shared prosperity in the vibrant province of Cabinda. Guided by a clear vision, our project aims to make a substantial contribution to food security, improve nutrition,

With this goal in mind, we have been working tirelessly to improve the lives of individuals and communities across Cabinda. Reflecting on our journey so far, we are proud of the tangible results we've achieved. By empowering farmers with essential knowledge and resources, we have seen notable improvements in agricultural productivity, food security, and nutrition. Additionally, our initiatives have created new employment opportunities and spurred local business growth, building economic resilience and ensuring shared prosperity across the region.

On this platform, you will find updates on key milestones, success stories from the field, and an overview of our ongoing projects and future plans. In line with our commitment to gender equality and women's empowerment, we are proud to highlight inspiring stories of women who have become powerful agents of change through our initiatives, driving both agricultural progress and community development.

for their unwavering support, dedication, and collaborative spirit. Your contributions have been essential in helping us make meaningful strides toward sustainable development and lasting prosperity in Cabinda.

I look forward to the exciting progress we will continue to make together as we work toward achieving our shared goals.

I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to the project implementation team and our valued partners.

Warm regards,

José Luís Fernandes
